ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How to Treat

Medical authorities state that nearly place tenshs of the cases of atomach tremble, indigestion, sourness, butraing, gas, binating, nauses, etc. are due to an excess of hydrocitionic acid in the sistina hand not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach linking is fritisted, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stemach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestents are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying ande all digestive aids and histead get from any druggist a few commences of bisurated Magnesia and take a reaspondful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweeters the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no nourness gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia for the stomach, inexpensive to take anough the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach, portures. RUMANIA PASSING THROUGH NEW CRISIS

Bucharest, May 12.—Rumania is passing through another of the many political crises she has experienced since the armistice. General Alexander Averesco, who was made premier by King Ferdinand in the middle of March did not have a majority in the old parliament which the king dissolved at that time and he is being opposed by several political parties in the new elections to choose a parliament to succeed the one dissolved by the king.

Promises have been made that General Averesce a parliament to succeed the one dissolved by the king.

Promises have been made that General Averesce. Church services were held Sunday sorning, Mr. Savage taking for his theme

The Christian Eaceavor meeting was led by Miss Minnie Kingeley.

It was with deep regret that the congregation heard the pastor's resignation sunday morning. Mr. Savage, a senior at Hartford Theological semipary, has ably and satisfactority supplied here for the past year and it was hoped he would decide to remain through the summer, but he has accepted a call to become pastor of a large church in Springfield, O. He has made many friends during his stay has made many friends during his stay here who extended to him best wishes for his success in his aew field. Mr. Savage will preach his final sermon Sun-

Savage will preach his final sermon Sunday morning next.

Through the generosity of Col. Hiram Bingham, $100 has been offered toward a new church organ, providing the church raises $50 more. A meeting was held at Mrs. Mary Darling's Tuesday evening and a committee was appointed to got up an entertainment to help raise the amount. A new organ is needed, therefore Mr. Bingham's offer is greatly appreciated, and it is hoped all will be interested in this project and lend help in every way possible.
